Conditions:

Policy ##### – Recreational Vehicles; Storage and Occupancy on Reserve Lands

##### STORAGE

1. A recreational vehicle may be locked and stored unlicensed on rental property for a period of time not to exceed six months at a fee of $25. After which time they must show valid storage insurance stickers. After the 6 months, the permit may be renewed for free if the vehicle has valid insurance.
2. Recreational vehicles may only be stored on vacant lots if:
  - The RV is owned by a Band member,
  - Provide proof of valid insurance
  - The owners complete an application for lot rental and, if approved,
  - Pay pad rent in the amount of $ 80/month, on a month to month basis.
3. While in storage the RV must not be occupied. If it is determined that someone is living in the RV while stored, this is grounds for immediate 24-hour eviction of the person/persons living in the RV. If the vehicle is stored on rental property, Housing may also serve a 30-day eviction notice to the renters of the rental property
