Lesson 11.3

HOUSING TOPIC 11.3

Housing of the future in First Nation communities

---

INQUIRY QUESTION

What is housing development?

HOUSING TOPIC DESCRIPTION

Houses of the future may look very different from the homes we know today. Changes in the way we live, new technologies, and growing environmental and social concerns will all influence how houses are designed. On reserves, future home designs and materials will continue to evolve to meet community needs.

LESSON OUTCOME

By the end of this lesson, learners will be able to plan for future First Nation housing challenges and solutions by creating a futuristic home design plan.

CURRICULAR TIE

Note

- The inquiry question is an overarching question that can be asked at the beginning and revisited throughout; use the KWL Chart.
- Learners need to connect Keeper of My Home content to the nation/community and to themselves. The traditional teachings and values related to housing must be sought out locally, brought into the school and used as a lens for approaching the remaining topics.

MATERIALS

1. KWL Chart
  2. Design a Future House activity

PROCEDURE

1. Print and distribute the Design a Future House handout.
2. Encourage learners to think about a problem that future homes in their community may need to address (for example: energy shortages, land shortages, pollution, climate change, or community safety).
3. Ask learners to describe how future homes could help solve this problem, considering new technology, creative ideas, or changes that could make homes better and more sustainable.
4. Have learners use these ideas to complete the Design a Future House handout.

KWL Chart

1. Have learners complete a KWL chart by identifying what they already know, what they want to know, and what they have learned throughout the lesson.

KMH e-learning option: Have learners explore and complete e-learning activities. These activities can be used as a stand-alone activity or to reinforce learning from lessons.
